

use of our families - we are all heartily with you - but perhaps you had better not say this at the present moment - as we shall soon let our friends on the other side of the Atlantic know it - Best and kindest regards to Wright & all other true friends of the Anti-Slavery Cause in Boston - I have added a few other pamphlets, for use ~

J. Scoble.
 London 3 Sept. 1840
 (27 New Broad Street.)

My dear Phelps

I have just time to hand you a valuable work, drawn exclusively from Official papers, which I have no doubt will give you much satisfaction.

You will probably make a liberal use of it in the Abolitionist -

Ever yours

J. Scoble

Do forward to this Office the Abolitionist regularly - we long to have it - If it be possible by some means send a complete series from the beginning for the